

Introducing...

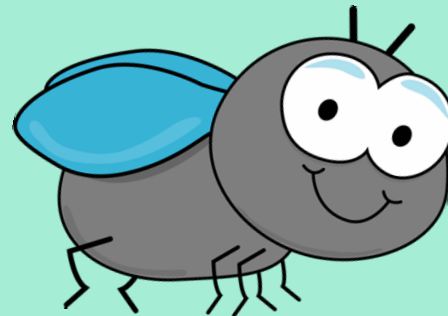

Multiple Meaning

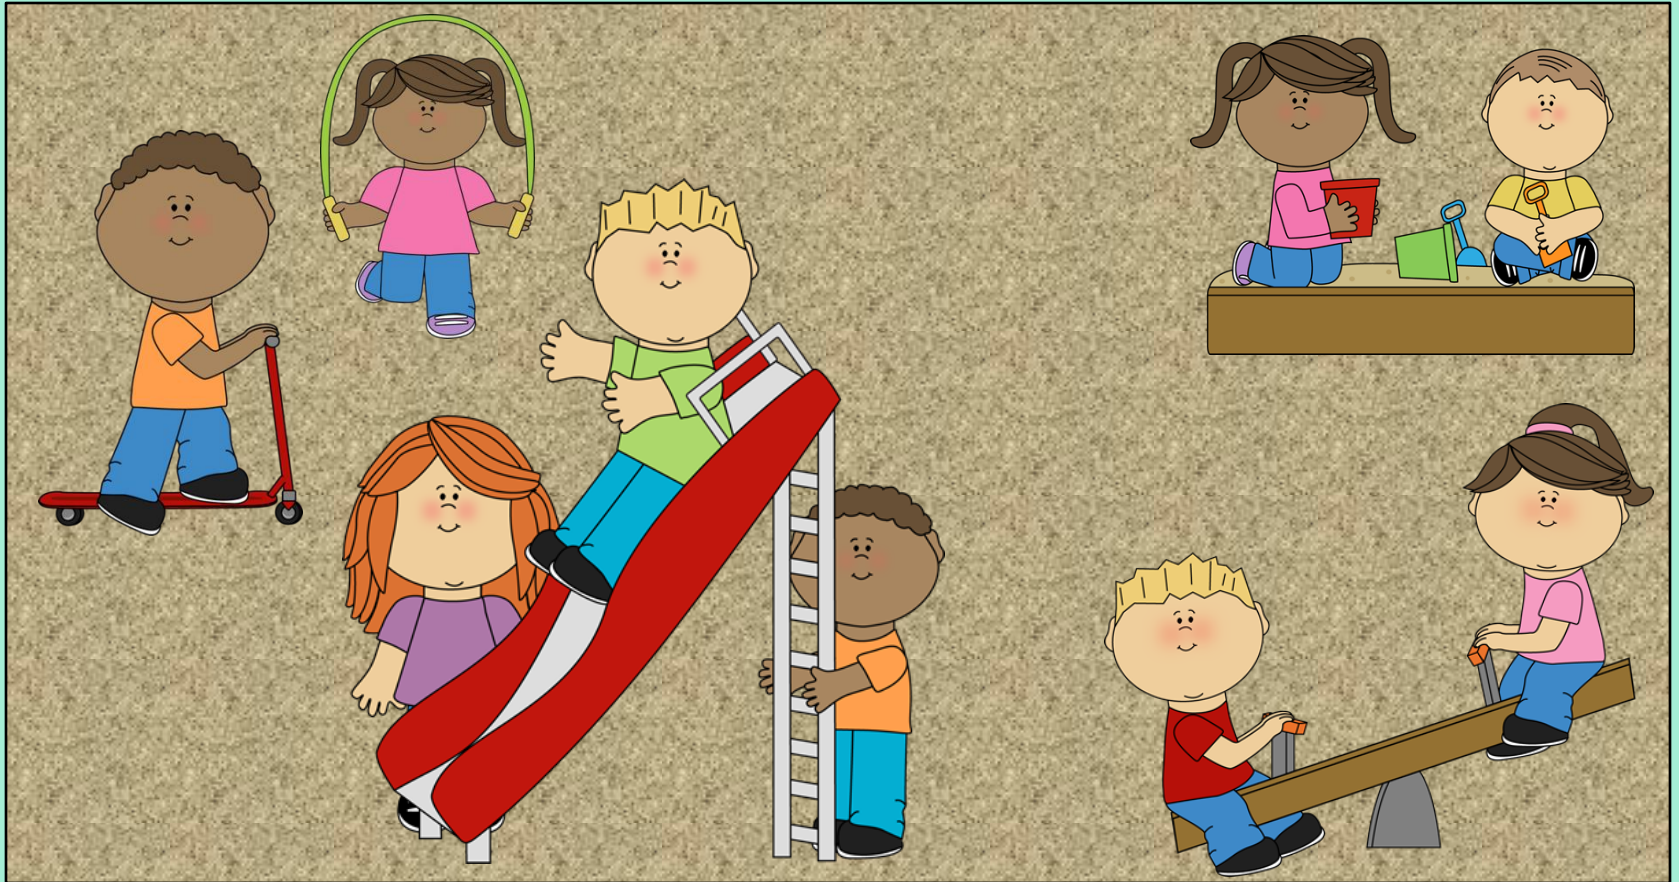

Moose

Multiple Meaning Words

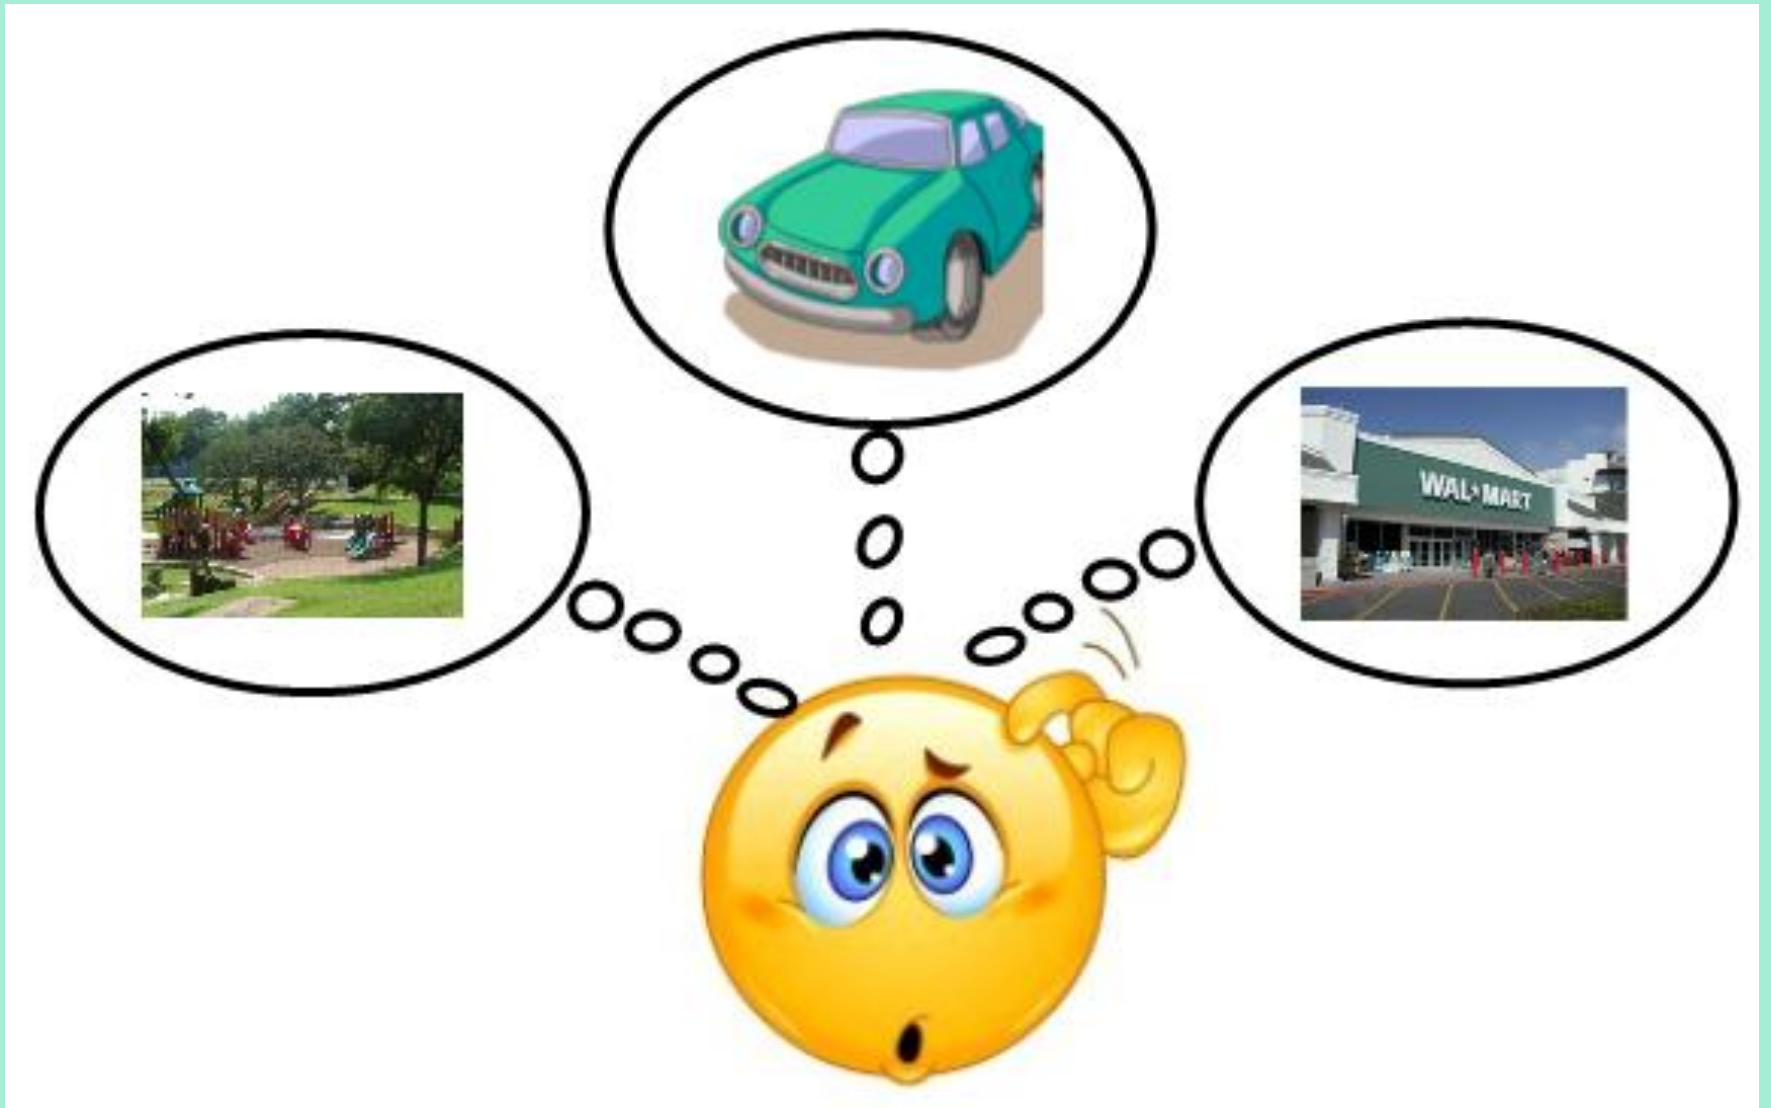

park

I know that a park is a playground.

Then I read this sentence...

My mom parks
the car in front of the store.

It doesn't make sense!

park

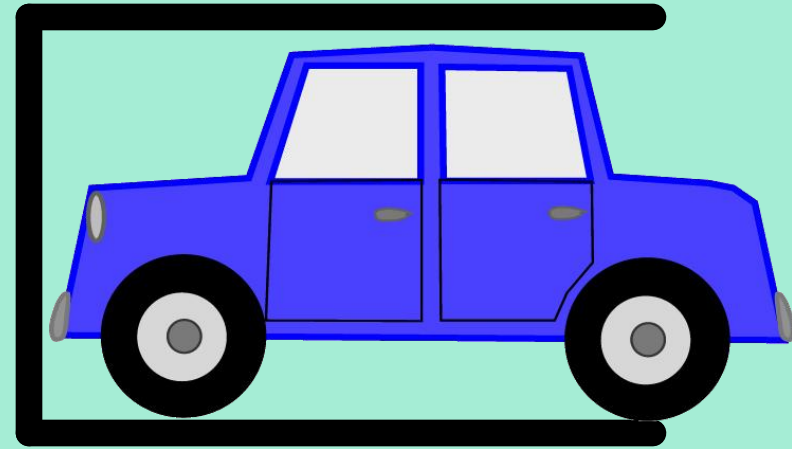

is a Multiple Meaning word

it has more than one meaning a park is a playground

AND

to park means to stop and leave your car somewhere.

Reread the sentence...

My mom parks the car in front of the store.

Which meaning for park makes sense?

Now, it makes sense!

My mom parks the car in front of the store.

How do I do it?

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask "Does it Make Sense?"
4. Go back and Reread!

Remember:

If it doesn't make sense...don't continue the rest of the story! You won't understand it.

mouse

a mouse is used to work on a computer

a mouse is a small animal

AND

Which meaning makes sense in this sentence?

I think I saw a mouse run across the kitchen floor!

A

B

Remember:

If it doesn't make sense...don't continue the rest of the story! You won't understand it.

fall

Fall is a season of the year

AND

to fall is to drop to the ground

Which meaning makes sense in this sentence?

In the Fall, the leaves come down and I get my jacket out of the closet.

A

B

A bat is a wooden stick used to hit a ball.

bat

A bat is a small flying animal.

AND

to bat is to hit a ball with a wooden stick

Which meaning makes sense in this sentence?

I run out to the field when it is my turn to bat.

A

B

C

Remember:

If it doesn't make sense...don't continue the rest of the story! You won't understand it.

So remember, when you're reading:

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask "Does it Make Sense?"
4. Go back and Reread!

Now you try it!
Good Luck!

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

pet

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

pet

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Sara and Jenna like to pet dogs.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ben has 3 pets: a dog, a cat, and a fish.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

cut

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Lois cut Amelia in line.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Bill will cut out the pictures.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

post

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Gary pounded the post into the dirt.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The teacher will post
the grades.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

string

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The guitar string broke.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

He has to string
beads in preschool.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

fire

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Mom and I will build a fire and roast marshmallows.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The boss will fire him.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

pack

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The pack of wolves ran after the zebra.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Jeff has to pack his suitcase for the trip.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

color

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Red is my favorite color.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Sydney likes to color pictures of flowers.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

shape

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Saul's favorite shape is a hexagon.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Try to shape the clay into an animal.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

break

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

After playing soccer for 3 hours, Denis took a break.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ava will try not to break her new toy.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

track

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The train stays on it's track.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The detectives track the criminal.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

point

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Emma's new scissors have a sharp point.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

It is not nice to point at people.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

corner

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

A parallelogram has four corners.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The hyenas will corner the lion.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

shot

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Mary went to the doctor and had to get a shot.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The hunter shot the deer.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

spring

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The spring on the mattress came out.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

I love when all the flowers bloom in the Spring.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

trick

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Smalls knows a lot of tricks.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Nolan will trick his brother into doing his homework.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

crack

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

When it is hot inside
I opened the window just a crack.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Rodolfo will crack the nuts open.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

tires

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Allie Quinn had to buy 4 new tires for the car.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The kids tire me out.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

staples

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Bradley bought some staples.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Reid, please staple
the papers together.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

float

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Barrett made a delicious root beer
float.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Lucas likes to float
on the water.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

plans

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ms. Gies makes lesson plans every weekend.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ms. Gies plans to have a holiday celebration each year.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

swing

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Bryce has a swing in his back yard.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Would you like to swing with me?

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

paint

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Kacher chose the green paint.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Catherine is going to paint her house purple.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

store

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Will you go to the grocery store for me?

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Jack will store his toys in the box.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

shell

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Cadence found a shell
at the beach.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

We need to shell the peanuts before we eat them.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

map

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Virginia showed us a map of North Carolina.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Now we can map out our trip to Disney World.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

block

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Alex ran around the block.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Shane had to block the ball from hitting his face.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Christopher's favorite toy is his toy blocks.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

list

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Angel made a list of things he needed from the store.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Paige will list all the ingredients you will need to make lemonade.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

brush

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ryan's mom bought a new hair brush at the store.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

You should brush your teeth every day.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

spell

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

I know how to spell
my name.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

The evil witch cast a magic spell on the princess.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

dress

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Ben's sister bought a new dress to wear on picture day.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Mary will dress her doll in a bathing suit.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

snap

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Lilly can snap her fingers to the beat.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Kate will snap her coat.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

picture

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Brenda drew a picture of a heart.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Can you picture a rainbow in your mind?

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

skate

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

Sarah got new ice skates for her birthday.

1. Think, what other meaning does the word have?
2. Use context clues to determine which meaning is correct.
3. Ask, "Does it make sense?"
4. Go back and reread.

She will skate for 2 hours this weekend.

spring

second

I want to be second in line after the line leader.

My mom told me
she would help me in a second.

I was the second person to turn in my project.

My dad is a baseball fan.

It is too hot, please turn on the fan!

The fans cheered loudly!

Let's Try Some!

1. Find out the meaning of the underlined word.

2. Decide which sentence has the same meaning as the target sentence.

Ben played the last note of the song on his piano.

The band teacher taught us how to read notes.

My mom wrote a note because I was absent.

The moon is in outer space.

Please make space
so I can sit down.

If you look into space at night, you will see a lot of stars.

Brenda picked up a bat to go play baseball.

I saw a bat flying around at night.

I hit the ball so hard, the bat broke.